Rear Admiral R. H. Hillenkoetter
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
2430 E Street, NW
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

I am writing you at the suggestion of Marshall McNeil, our Washington correspondent.

I spent the better part of last summer traveling in Europe with the Army and in the Pacific with the Navy. The result has been that I have had to make numerous talks in El Paso and this section. My talks have always ended with a warning of the Russian danger. As Comrade Vishinsky would say, I have been a "warmonger."

A few inquiries revealed that he had run from the Reds years ago and that he was well thought of in the college and the town. Otherwise I know nothing about him.

The point is: if he can start a revolution in Russia, it will be a great thing for the U. S. and the world. Chaos in Russia for a while would help a lot to end the chaos in the rest of Europe and perhaps save us from another war.

Probably you already have a dossier on the man and know whether he has any chance to do what he says he can do, but I am passing along the information for whatever it is worth and whatever use you wish to make of it.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ E. M. Pooley
